

SCClayCon 2022: Embracing Flame - Woodfire SC

Agenda

Sept 15-18

Thursday, Sept 15

3pm-6pm | (Optional) Pottery Drop off at Old Newberry Hotel, 1110 Caldwell Street

4pm-5pm | Early Registration at Firehouse Conference Center, 1227 McKibben Street

Friday, Sept 16

7:30am-8:30am | Pottery Drop off at Old Newberry Hotel 1110 Caldwell Street

8:00am-9:00am | Registration at Firehouse Conference Center 1227 McKibben Street

8:30am-9:00am | PRIVATE Pottery sale for SC ClayCon attendees

9:00am-9:15am | Opening remarks and announcements at Firehouse Conference Center

9:15am-10:15am | Slide Presentations by Hitomi & Takuro Shibata at Firehouse Conference Center

10am | Pottery Market Open to public

10:30am – 12:00pm | Demonstrations by Hitomi Shibata & Lindsay Oesterritter.

12:00pm-1:00pm | Catered Lunch - Upstairs of NFCC
Lunch is from Figaro Market, Main Street

- 1:00pm-2pm | Slide Presentation by Lindsay Oesterritter
- 2:15pm-3:45pm | Demonstrations continue by Hitomi Shibata & Lindsay Oesterritter
- 3:45pm-4:00PM | Break-out session with Newberry Yoga Instructor, Jane Wyatt
- 4:15pm-5:30pm | Takuro Shibata Demonstrations begin. Demonstrations continue with Hitomi Shibata & Lindsay Oesterritter
- 6:00pm-8:00pm | Pottery Market Reception, Eat, Meet & Greet at Old Newberry Hotel

Saturday, Sept 17

- 8:00am | Conference doors open at NFCC. Coffee and snacks available
- 9:00am-10:50am | Presentation and Demonstrations by Takuro Shibata (Break at 9:45-10:00)
- 11:00am-11:30am | Mastering Kilns and Firings, Lindsay Oesterritter
- 10am-6pm | Pottery Market Open at Old Newberry Hotel
- 11:30am-1:30pm | Lunch on Your Own.

- ALL ATTENDEES SIGNED UP FOR THE WOODFIRING IN OCTOBER, meet upstairs at 11:30 for a brief meeting with Rob Gentry to get information about the firing. This meeting is mandatory for those signed up to participate.

Please note the other activities you can participate in during this break:

- 11:45 – 12:45 - Book signing with Lindsay Oesterritter at Pottery Market, 1110 Caldwell Street,

- 11:45 – 12:45 - Yoga session at Newberry Yoga
1121 Caldwell Street,
 - $5 at the door. Yoga mats will be provided.
- Antique Southern Pottery Display at As Time Goes By,
1304 Main Street, Newberry

1:30pm-3:45pm | Demonstrations by all 3 presenters

4:00pm-5:00pm | Rob Gentry - Fire Song Kiln, Pendleton, SC

5:15pm-6:00pm | Questions, comments, and thoughts with Takuro, Lindsay, and Hitomi

6:00pm | Pottery Market sale ends.

6:00pm-6:30pm | Pottery Market pack up and check out at Old Newberry Hotel

6:30pm-8:30pm | Dinner, Location Steven W's Bistro.

Steve Faust has graciously offered to close the restaurant to other customers that night so it will just be ClayCon folks. We will be ordering from the regular menu. Your dinner and non-alcohol beverage are included. Wine, beer, or other alcohol may be purchased by you. We ask that everyone leave a tip for the waiters.

This dinner is sponsored in part by STOKES-TRAINOR.

Sunday, Sept 18

8:30am | Conference Center doors open. Coffee and snacks

9am-10:00am | James Lawton – Slides and talk

10:15am-11:45 | Panel Discussion:

A Conversation About Woodfire

Jim Lawton, Moderator

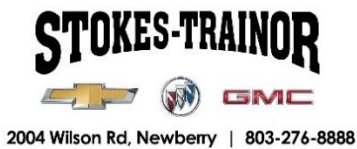

12noon-1:15pm | Catered Lunch – Upstairs of NFCC

1:30pm-2:30pm | SC ClayCon – The Future as YOU See It.

STARworks has donated clay for those participating in the wood firing in October in the Fire Song Kiln. Each participant will receive approximately 12 pounds of New Catawba 10, NC Wild Clay. Please thank Takuro Shibata and STARworks for this generous contribution to our program.

- Clay distribution will be announced during the conference.

The 2022 SC ClayCon is brought to you by the City of Newberry, Newberry Arts Center, and the following sponsors:

Please thank our wonderful volunteers and staff who have worked hard to help make the SC ClayCon run smoothly for your convenience.